Introducing the DFS Anthem UX™ User Experience Platform

Drive in-store traffic and customer loyalty through an interactive experience on an industry-leading 27-inch, high-definition touchscreen.

Boost sales and profit margins

Customize user experiences by integrating loyalty promotions on the secure touchscreen. Digital branding allows for multiple promotions during fueling: promote and enable impulse purchases of your highest margin products.

Drive customizable promotional strategies

Promote premium fuels, food, or drink specials based on the consumer's wants. Utilize dayparts for daily specials, and double your promotions between video and static advertisements all on one screen.

Enhance customer experience

Effortlessly give customers what they want the most: choices. From traffic and weather updates, to multiple language options, plus volume and screen contrast options, drive your repeat business through engaging interactivity.

Have you recently upgraded your dispensers? No problem. Anthem UX retrofit kits are compatible with all recent model Wayne Ovation fuel dispenser models.
